Cllr J Barton "I am the Chair of Governors at YGG Castellau" Cllr D Nicholas "I am a Governor at YGG Castellau"
4	The Chair welcomed Nia Parry and Lowri Bell from Mudiad Ysgolion Meithrin. The meeting had been called to address the arrears accrued by the Cylch Meirthin Beddau for rent due at the Council's Llys y Cwm hall. Nia Parry gave the Council an update on the current position of Cylch Beddau. Morning sessions have been suspended as numbers are too low to sustain staffing levels required. Cylch Beddau continue to provide an afternoon wrap-around session for children at YGG Castellau. Lowri and Nia are working with the Cylch to ensure staffing levels meet the needs of those using the service and its financial position has yet to be confirmed. The Council is concerned that such a vital service that supports Welsh language in the local area need to be operationally viable and well managed.
Agreed: that a further meeting has been arranged for Wednesday 18 October, 2017, 3.30pm at Llys y Cwm at which Mudiad Ysgolion Meithrin will set out how Cylch Meithrin Beddau proposes to clear the arrears accrued and how it will operate in both the short and medium term.
